We deliver travel differently

At Travel Design Group we want you to travel with confidence and in comfort.

Covid-19 means a change to the way we travel; we will have new considerations and requirements when booking accommodation. Hotels are widely implementing new procedures to make sure they are safe for guests and staff and comply with local government regulations. Many properties are offering contactless experiences and 'knock and go' room service.

Here is a listing of major hotel groups and links to their COVID-19 policy.
